

Dog Training Classes

When you come for a dog training class at the Oregon Humane Society in Salem, you will meet your trainer on the back side of the property.

There is an automatic gate, when you drive on the white rectangle, the gate will open.

Park here

Overflow parking if the other spots are full.

Enter here

You will see this sign from the parking lot

We have reserved parking spots for when you are in class, with the door you will be going in on the right of them.

Please wait in your car until your trainer opens the door and escorts you in. We look forward to having you and your dog in class.
